(Petition for Revival of Unintentionally Abandoned Application [11-3]—page 1 of 3)

1. This application became abandoned on 26 Nov 2004

NOTE: Extensions under 37 C.F.R. § 1.136 are available only if asked for "prior to or with the response." Accordingly, if the question of abandonment arises when the provisions of § 1.136 can no longer be used, then the application is abandoned when the unextended time for response expired. Therefore, no extension fees are due on a petition for revival. Thus: An application which is abandoned for failure to respond within a set period with no extension fee having been paid, would not require the payment of extension fees as a condition for revival. M.P.E.P. § 711.03(c), 6th ed., rev. 2.

2. This application became abandoned because the failure to prosecute was an unintentional delay. The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date until the filing of this petition was unintentional 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b)(3).

Notice of May 13, 1983, (1031 O.G. 11-12). See also M.P.E.P. § 711.03(c), 6th ed., rev. 2. "In an application or patent, abandoned or lapsed for failure to pay the issue fee or any portion thereof, the required reply must be the payment of the issue fee or any outstanding balance thereof." 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b)(1).

Sir:

In accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b), the following is a statement of delay caused by unintentional circumstances.

1. The present application was filed on September 9, 2003 as a non-provisional patent application, claiming convention priority from an Italian patent application.
2. A non-final Office Action was mailed on May 26, 2004, having a three-month shortened statutory period for reply.
3. Applicant did not file a response to the Office Action.
4. The Application was constructively abandoned as of November 26, 2004, the last day to respond to the Office Action within the six month statutory period of response.
5. A Notice of Abandonment has not yet been received.

6. The present petition is less than three months after the date the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office received the notice of abandonment because no notice has been sent.
7. The present petition is less than one year after the date of actual abandonment by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.
8. The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b) was unintentional.

Applicant petitions for revival based upon unintentional delay, and Applicant has included a proper response, comprising an Amendment A attached hereto. Applicant files the required reply to secure revival of the patent application for consideration by an Examiner.

The present Petition for Revival is less than one year of the actual abandonment and less than three months after receiving notice of Abandonment. The entire period of delay, until the filing of the present grantable petition, was unintentional.

Applicant respectfully requests granting the Petition to Revive because the Applicant never intended for the application to be abandoned. Applicant respectfully contends that the application is now in a proper condition for examination. The government fee of $1500 is attached.
